

Miscellaneous Policies

- Holidays - Islamic Holidays (Eid-ul-Fitr and Eid-ul-Adha) will be observed. IAH refrains from celebrating Valentine's Day, St. Patrick's Day, Halloween, and Christmas.
- Birthdays - IAH refrains from celebrating Birthdays. Please note that distribution of birthday cards, gifts or invitations to birthday parties on school property are not allowed.
- Field Trips - All parents of PreK students MUST attend in order for their child to go on the field trip, they can find a replacement but not a person volunteering separately. This ensures that there is an adult responsible for each child.
- Buying, Trading and Selling – Buying, trading or selling of any item, between students, on school property is strictly forbidden.
- Jewelry - For the safety of the students jewelry is not to be worn at school.
- Administration will not be responsible for any lost jewelry.
- Lost Items - Each Friday, all lost items turned into the office during that week will be discarded after dismissal.
- Damaged or Permanently Lost Books - IAH issues textbooks to students and expects proper handling ; thus, any lost or damaged textbook will require payment for the replacement book. These books include, but are not limited to, textbooks, workbooks, and library books. Failure to pay for lost or damaged books may result in a hold on the students' academic records.
- Conferences - Parent teacher conferences are mandatory after the first report card. If a parent cannot attend a teleconference may be set up with advanced notice.
- Toys - These items should not be brought to school. Toys include but are not limited to cell phones, radios, dolls, electronic devices, fidget spinners and/or trading cards. Such toys will be confiscated and submitted to the office and parents will have to collect them.
- Money - Bringing large amounts of money to school is not allowed. IAH is not liable for any lost money.
- Pets - Absolutely no animals or pets may be brought to school at any time.
